The YWCA Department for Racial Justice is committed to advancing and assisting underrepresented groups and individuals in seeking leadership roles in Tarrant County. The Institute for Public Leadership offers hands-on experience for participants to:

- Understand the responsibility of making a commitment to service in your community;
- Gain knowledge of who lives in Tarrant County;
- Discover different arenas of public service, including county, city, school, boards and nonprofit organizations;
- Understand the myriad of skills needed to serve;
- Ascertain what's out there, whether it is an elected, appointed and/or volunteer opportunity; and,
- Make a commitment and implement your goal.

Complete the Institute and our advisory team will help you find the right match. We'll stay in touch and invite you to the next Institute track - how to run for public office!
